- B.1.1. Records held by The Practice may be accessed on request only once the requirements for access have been met.
- B.1.2. A requester is any person making a request for access to a record of The Practice and in this regard, the Act distinguishes between two types of requesters:

B.1.2.1. Personal Requester

A personal requester is a requester who is seeking access to a record containing personal information about the requester. Subject to the provisions of the Act and applicable law, The Practice will provide the requested information, or give access to any record about the requester's personal information. The prescribed fee for reproduction of the information requested will be charged by The Practice.

B.1.2.2. Other Requester

This requester (other than a personal requester) is entitled to request access to information pertaining to third parties. However, The Practice is not obliged to grant access prior to the requester fulfilling the requirements for access in terms of the Act. The prescribed fee for reproduction of the information requested will be charged by The Practice.

B.2. How will my PAIA request be processed by The Practice?

- B.2.1. A requester must comply with all the procedural requirements contained in the Act relating to a request for access to a record.

- B.2.5. The requester must also provide an explanation of why the requested record is required for the exercise or protection of that right.
- B.2.6. The Practice will process a request within 30 days, unless the requestor has stated special reasons which would satisfy the information officer that circumstances dictate that this period not be complied with.
- B.2.7. The requester shall be informed in writing whether access has been granted or denied. If, in addition, the requester requires the reasons for the decision in any other manner, he or she must state the way it is required.

- B.2.8. If a request is made on behalf of another person, the requester must then submit proof of the capacity in which the requester is making the request to the satisfaction of the information officer.
